

Biostatistics and Clinical Trials Data Management

Committed to delivering highest standards of quality

As a full service CRO, with extensive experience in clinical operations and drug development processes, Veeda integrates its clinical expertise and knowledge into its data management and biostatistical capabilities

Clinical Data management

Clinical data management is involved in all aspects of processing the clinical data, working with a range of computer applications and database systems to collect, review, clean and transfer the patient data for statistical analysis

What we offer

- Coding Set-up & Testing
- eCRF development and programming
- Edit check specification development, programming, and review
- Script development, testing, and documentation
- Data review, query issuance/resolution, data status reporting in real time for vaccine studies
- Handling of data transfers and reconciliations
- SDTM creation and validation
- Reviewers guide development
- Tables, Figures and Listings creation and validation
- Traditional and adaptive study design
- Statistical planning and analysis utilizing validated SaaS systems
- Bio-statistical review, interim and final analysis
- Database lock/submission, Archiving

Experts at Veeda deploy the human and technological resources in the best possible manner to ensure that we are able to deliver quality results on time

Data Management Team Experience

(Experienced in Early & Late Phase Clinical Trials)

Biostatistics

Development and application of statistical models to analyse and interpret the scientific data generated during research

Bio statistical thinking is an integral part of the study design for every clinical trial

Biostatistics Team Experience

Team has solid experience in all phases of Trials and gained from both Pharmaceutical and CRO organizations

System and tools we use

✉ Write to us at info@veedacr.com

🌐 www.veedacr.com

Partners in creating a Healthier Tomorrow