- a) Investigating every formal written complaint of sexual harassment
- b) Taking appropriate remedial measures to respond to any substantiated allegations of sexual harassment
- c) Discouraging and preventing employment-related sexual harassment

7.4.4 Informal Resolution Options

The Company is committed to providing a supportive environment in which to resolve concerns of sexual harassment as under:

- a) When an incident of sexual harassment occurs, the victim of such conduct can communicate her/his disapproval and objections immediately to the harasser and request the harasser to behave decently.
- b) Keep a record of incidents (dates, times, locations, possible witnesses, what happened and your response to the same). It is not mandatory to have a record of events to file a complaint but a record can strengthen your case and help you remember the details over time, in case the complaint is not filed immediately;
- c) File a complaint as soon as possible. If, after asking the accused to stop their behaviour, the harassment continues, report the abuse to the Complaints Committee formed for this purpose.

7.5 Redressal Process

7.5.1 Any employee with a harassment concern, who is not comfortable with the informal resolution options or has exhausted such options, may make a formal complaint to the Chairperson of the Complaints Committee constituted by the Management.

7.5.2 The complaint shall have to be in writing and can be in form of a letter, preferably within 7 days from the date of occurrence of the alleged incident, sent in a sealed envelope. Alternately, the employee can send complaint through an email. The employee is required to disclose her name, department, division and location she/he is working in, to enable the Chairperson to contact the victim to take the matter forward.

7.5.3 The Committee will maintain a register to endorse the complaint received by it and keep the contents confidential, if it is so desired, except to use the same for discreet investigation.

7.5.4 The Committee will hold a meeting with the Complainant within five days of the receipt of the complaint, but no later than a week in any case.

7.5.5 At the first meeting, the Committee members shall hear the Complainant and record her/his allegations. The Complainant can also submit any corroborative material with a documentary proof, oral or written material, etc., to substantiate his / her complaint. If the Complainant does not wish to depose personally due to embarrassment of narration of event, a lady officer for lady employees involved and a male officer for male employees, involved shall meet and record the statement.

- 7.5.6 Thereafter, the person against whom complaint is made may be called for a deposition before the Committee and an opportunity will be given to him / her to give an explanation, where after, an “Enquiry” shall be conducted and concluded.
- 7.5.7 In the event, the complaint does not fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment or the complaint does not mean an offence of Sexual Harassment, the same would be dropped after recording the reasons thereof.
- 7.5.8 In case the complaint is found to be false, the Complainant shall, if deemed fit, be liable for appropriate disciplinary action by the Management.
- 7.6 Enquiry Process
  - 7.6.1 The Committee shall immediately proceed with the Enquiry and communicate the same to the Complainant and person against whom complaint is made.
  - 7.6.2 The Committee shall prepare and hand over the Statement of Allegation to the person against whom complaint is made and give him / her opportunity to submit a written explanation if she / he so desires within 7 days of receipt of the same.
  - 7.6.3 The Complainant shall be provided with a copy of the written explanation submitted by the person against whom complaint is made.
  - 7.6.4 If the Complainant or the person against whom complaint is made desires any witness/es to be called, they shall communicate in writing to the Committee the names of witness/es whom they propose to call.
  - 7.6.5 If the Complainant desires to tender any documents by way of evidence before the Committee, she / he shall supply original copies of such documents. Similarly, if the person against whom complaint is made desires to tender any documents in evidence before the Committee he /she shall supply original copies of such documents. Both shall affix his /her signature on the respective documents to certify these to be original copies.
  - 7.6.6 The Committee shall call upon all witnesses mentioned by both the parties.
  - 7.6.7 The Committee shall provide every reasonable opportunity to the Complainant and to the person against whom complaint is made, for putting forward and defending their respective case.

- 7.6.8 During the pendency of an inquiry, on a written request made by the aggrieved woman, the Internal Committee may recommend to the employer to
- a) transfer the aggrieved woman or the respondent to any other workplace; or
  - b) grant leave to the aggrieved woman up to a period of three months; or
  - c) Grant such other relief to the aggrieved woman as may be prescribed. The leave granted to the aggrieved woman under this section shall be in addition to the leave she would be otherwise entitled.
- 7.6.9 The Committee shall complete the “Enquiry” within reasonable period but not beyond three months and communicate its findings and its recommendations for action to the Head-HR/ Chief Operating Officer/ Group Managing Director. The report of the committee shall be treated as an enquiry report on the basis of which an erring employee can be awarded appropriate punishment straightaway.
- 7.6.10 The Management will direct appropriate action in accordance with the recommendation proposed by the Committee.
- 7.6.11 The Committee shall be governed by such rules as may be framed by the Supreme Court orders or any other legislation enacted later on.
- 7.6.12 Corrective action may include any of the following:
- a) Formal apology
  - b) Counseling
  - c) Written warning to the perpetrator and a copy of it maintained in the employee’s file.
  - d) Change of work assignment / transfer for either the perpetrator or the victim.
  - e) Suspension or dismissal of services of the employee found guilty of the offence
- 7.6.13 In case the complaint is found to be false, the Complainant shall, if deemed fit, be liable for appropriate disciplinary action by the Management.
- 7.7 Confidentiality
- 7.7.1 The Company understands that it is difficult for the victim to come forward with a complaint of sexual harassment and recognizes the victim’s interest in keeping the matter confidential.
- 7.7.2 To protect the interests of the victim, the accused person and others who may report incidents of sexual harassment, confidentiality will be maintained throughout any investigatory process to the extent practicable and appropriate under the circumstances.

7.8 Access to Reports and Documents

7.8.1 All records of complaints, including contents of meetings, results of investigations and other relevant material will be kept confidential by the Company except where disclosure is required under disciplinary or other remedial processes.

7.9 Protection to Complainant/Victim

7.9.1 Regardless of the outcome of the complaint made in good faith, the employee lodging the complaint and any person providing information or any witness, will be protected from any form of retaliation at the workplace. While dealing with complaints of sexual harassment, the Committee shall ensure that the complainant or the witnesses are not victimised or discriminated against by the accused. Any unwarranted pressures, retaliatory or any other type of unethical behaviour from the accused against the complainant while the investigation is in progress should be reported by the complainant to the Complaints Committee as soon as possible. Disciplinary action will be taken by the Complaints Committee against any such complaints which are found genuine.

7.10 Documentation

7.10.1 The Committee shall keep complete and accurate documentation of the complaint, its investigation and the resolution thereof. The incident would be documented in both the complainant's and the accused's files with the full report of the Complaints Committee.

7.11 Complaints made with Malicious Intent

7.11.1 This Policy has been evolved as a tool to ensure that in the interest of justice and fair play, our employees have a forum to approach in the event of instances of sexual harassment. However, if on investigation it is revealed that the complaint was made with a malicious intent and with the motive of maligning the concerned individual/ tarnishing their image in the company and to settle personal/ professional scores; strict action will be taken against the complainant.
Provided that a mere inability to provide adequate proof need not attract action against the complainant

7.11.2 The employees who are victims of sexual harassment may, in addition to the above seek legal remedies as may be provided under the various laws for the time being in force.
